TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE Transcriber's Office FLOOR DEBATE

May 16, 2001 LB 542

Legislature is not going to stand up. The Legislature is moved by every wind of doctrine. Certain lobbyists, certain special interest groups make this Legislature crumble. Look at Union Pacific. Look at all those LB 775 companies. They dare not be challenged.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Look at the ethanol speculators. If I don't fight them hard, that bill would have been gone. And a number of bills have been the same way. The legislators are not known for courage. I'm not going to vote a certain way based on anything other than what fits my long-range plans for this session. As far as a building falling down at UNO, what has UNO done that should gain my support and respect? If they think the buildings are going to fall down, let them go to the business community. Senator Suttle and nobody else has said that the business persons have stood up in Omaha and said, this is something that's needed. The World-Herald hasn't supported it. Your former mayor didn't support it. Where's the chamber of commerce, all these groups that you all respect so much? They don't think it's worth anything. They...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...use you. When they want something, they pop their finger, and you jump. Then there's something you think is important, and they give you the back of their hand, as they should. I'm going to watch the votes on this.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. And this is the third time, Senator. Senator Kristensen on the motion to override.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the Legislature. I...after listening to Senator Hilgert's speech, reminded me of one I gave about ten years ago, because I was so concerned about a couple of buildings out in Kearney. And you all become very parochial when you start to get towards the top of the list. Everybody forgets that at some point in time you were at the middle or the bottom of that list, and they're more
